Why should WCVA members vote for me to be a trustee?

WCVA members should vote for me to be a trustee of the organisation because I'm an independent thinker. I come to my own conclusions. I'm as willing to challenge allies as I am those who I disagree with.

Whenever I'm held accountable, by my former electorate to members of your organisation, it's important that I'm able to justify the decisions I take and demonstrate how I have come to those conclusions. This is vital so people can have peace of mind that real consideration, free of undue influence, has gone into the process.

I believe most people want to make a positive difference in their communities but sadly many don't know where to begin. Now is the opportunity to harness that desire, to create tangible and impactful action as people are rediscovering their freedoms and power. One of the ways to do this is to enable and empower voluntary organisations to bring people together to make a bigger, collective difference. As individuals we can only do so much, but together we are stronger, especially at times of crisis. It's that type of culture and attitude I want to build within the WCVA, as a trustee on the board.
